Eco Tip: No 334 Save water. Don't wash the dishes

Let them pile up to the point where you're actually wondering if it's ok to eat soup from a dog's bowl. Then, and only then, casually load the dirty pots into a dishwasher. Press the start button. Now sit down and catch your breath. A fully loaded dishwasher can be more water efficient than washing by hand. Even if you're using a washing-up bowl.

Archdeacon's Visitation
